

Lupane State University

Building Communities through Knowledge

Nullification of SEC Elections

Due to some irregularities observed in the conduct of the recent SEC elections, the University management would like to notify students, staff and stakeholders that the results of the recently held SEC elections have been nullified. New election dates would be announced soon.

Any inconveniences caused by this incident, are sincerely regretted.

Mr T. Donga
(ACTING REGISTRAR)

